AFRICAN CONNECTIONS
Your Gateway To Africa™

We start the tour in Dakar, with a deep dive into the history and culture of Senegal, discovering the hidden and fascinating wonders of this West African country. We also explore Senegal's inextricable connections to the Trans-Atlantic slave trade and African American history.

Tour Highlights:

Visits to Dakar, Goree Island, where captured Africans were warehoused during the slave trade, St Louis, the Lompoul Desert, the Parc National de Langue de Barbarie, Fathala Nature Reserve, Sine Saloum Reserve, Kaolack, Joal, Fadiouth, Saly, Pink Lake, and so much more!

Days 1-3 Travel from the United States; Explore Dakar and Goree Island

Travel from the United States and tour Dakar, the capital of Senegal and Goree Island.

Dakar, is a modern cosmopolitan city of over two million inhabitants that will surprise you with its blend of western and traditional influences.

We will visit many of Dakar's most significant sites including:

Independence Plaza, the Presidential Palace, the Cathedral of Dakar, the Grand Mosque, the Gate of the 3rd Millennium, Dakar University and the Statue of the African Renaissance, the tallest statute in Africa.

Browse through Sandaga Market and the Craft Market of Soumbedioune, where you can shop and find traditional handicrafts and unique souvenirs.

Take a ferry cruise to Goree Island, which is about 3 miles from Dakar.

Goree Island is a tiny island with a violent past. Goree Island is a UNESCO World Heritage site which between the fifteenth and the eighteenth centuries was one of the main warehouses for the storage and shipment of captured and enslaved Africans headed for the Americas, the Caribbean and Brazil.

We will visit the shocking “House of Slaves” museum and learn more about Goree Island’s history as a vital player in the infamous Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade.

We will see the last place the ancestors saw before they boarded the crowded and inhumane slave ships, never to return home to Africa.

We will stand at this “Door-of-no-return” in the “House of Slaves” and hear a brief but informative lecture on slavery, from a uniquely African perspective.

This brief history of Goree will give you a sense of Senegal’s inextricable connections to African American history.

Days 4-6 Nature Park; St. Louis City and Lompoul Desert Tours

We begin with a tour of Parc National de la Langue de Barbarie.

We'll take the scenic route to observation areas that will allow you to witness the breathtaking spectacular flight of flamingos, flying in formation and huge pelicans breaking to fly.

The Parc National de Langue de Barbarie, is an ecosystem that is rich and varied. It is a unique combination of environments with mangroves, sand dunes, the Senegal River, the Langue de Barbarie, tidal wetlands, the beach, and the ocean.

The park is best known for its bird reproduction island and is an important stop on the European bird migration route.

The park hosts over 160 different species of migratory and sedentary birds, as well as numerous reptile species, monkeys and other wildlife.

We will also tour the beautiful historic city of St. Louis.

St. Louis will remind you of New Orleans with its colorful wooden balconies lining narrow streets.

We will drive through this unique city to take in its old multi-colored, magnificent houses and elegant old-world charm.

We will drive through the Lompoul desert and stop at the camp of Mauritanian Nomads who live in tents and observe traditions that have changed little over the centuries.
